CRAZY HAT DAY

THURSDAY, 24 MARCH

The Puggles are invited to wear a crazy hat to school on Thursday, 24 March (before the Easter long week-end) and we will have a Crazy Hat Parade at the preschool. Please, don't go to too much trouble or purchase anything special. Just a 'different' or funny hat for the day would be good.

We will also be having a chocolate egg hunt in the afternoon (and eating the eggs at home!). The eggs will be in accordance with our 'nut aware' requirements. If you do not want your child to participate in the chocolate egg hunt, then please contact me via email or a chat.

Sincerely,
Carolyn & Mariana
